

New Resources: Library Skills

New Webinar: Searching Library Databases for Articles

Hour long overview of how to search research databases effectively.
November 12, 11 A.M CST

Learners can register here:

<https://capella.webex.com/capella/onstage/g.php?p=186&t=m>

Education Research Complete

We have a brand new collection Education Research Complete.

- Education Research Complete – Full text coverage of more than 1,400 education journals plus 550 books and monographs. Topics include curriculum instruction, administration, policy, funding, multilingual education, health education, testing and more.

Library Guides Surpass 150!

Advantages of Library Guides:

Guides and Tutorials help learners avoid initial frustration and prevent them from wasting time figuring out where to begin. Library Guide links are persistent, and can be easily added to assignments.

Here are a few guides that might be helpful. We can link these directly, repurpose any of the content or create a brand new guide from scratch.

- Finding Articles by TYPE – <http://capellauniversity.libguides.com/articletypes>
- Education Research Guides - <http://capellauniversity.libguides.com/cat.php?cid=17919>

Selection Grid:

Problem	Solution/Guide
I don't know where to go in the Library to find resources.	Library Tour Video
I can't find any resources about my topic in the library. (Trouble searching library databases)	Finding Journal Articles Finding Journal Articles
Where should I begin to find articles for my research assignment?	Finding Articles for You

<http://capellauniversity.libguides.com/aecontent.php?pid=114430&sid=1040060>